APPENDIX: COPTIC LITERATURE ON THE INTERNET

This is a short list of the sites developed in 2008-2012 discussed in the paper. A more detailed list of sites relating to Coptic manuscripts, text editions and translations of Coptic texts – several of which have since been expanded or brought up-to-date – was provided at the 2008 congress.

Coptica, maintained by Pierre Cherix, Université de Genève

<http://www.coptica.ch>

Useful, up-to-date collection of links and study aids.

Blog and Facebook page dedicated to Coptic manuscripts maintained by Alin Suciu

<http://alinsuciu.com/>

<https://www.facebook.com/copticmanuscripts>

e-COPTOLOGY: Towards a Digital Heritage, maintained by Ibrahim Saweros

<http://copticforegyptians.blogspot.nl/>

Collection of books and articles on various topics, complementing the sites maintained by Pierre Cherix and Alin Suciu

St. Shenouda the Archimandrite Coptic Society, maintained by Hany Takla

<http://www.stshenouda.com>

This site contains an overview article on Coptic manuscripts at: www.stshenouda.com/coptman/coptmss1.htm and gives access to the manuscript collection of the society.

Please send all additions and corrections to: hbehlme@uni-goettingen.de. In the case of papers published in collections of essays or journals which might be difficult to access, a copy (or electronic copy) would be much appreciated.
